I'm a dedicated and versatile professional known for bringing energy, reliability, and a can-do attitude to every role I undertake. With hands-on experience across diverse environments, from fast-paced restaurants to children's educational programs, I have consistently demonstrated my commitment to excellence and teamwork. At Chick-fil-A, I was more than just a team member – I was the driving force behind the seamless daily operations, tackling everything from bagging and cooking to kitchen cleaning and inventory stocking. My meticulous attention to detail and proactive approach ensured every task was completed to the highest standard, enhancing both customer satisfaction and team efficiency.

At New Hope Children's Summer School, I stepped up as a children's supervisor, where I became the guardian of a safe, fun, and nurturing environment. I took on the challenge of maintaining order and cleanliness while staying attentive to the kids' needs, ensuring every child felt secure and engaged. My ability to juggle multiple responsibilities with precision, whether overseeing children's activities or handling clean-up duties, showcased my adaptability and unwavering dedication.

I'm driven by a strong work ethic and a passion for making a positive impact, whether it's through creating memorable customer experiences or ensuring the safety and happiness of the next generation. I thrive in dynamic settings where I can use my multitasking skills, attention to detail, and collaborative spirit to achieve excellence. With my proven track record and relentless commitment, I am not just good at my job; I aim to be the best in everything I do.
